Dear [redacted]:

Thank you for your letter of 13 September enclosing your application forms.

We will do our best to locate something for you in your area of primary interest, and will get in touch with you in this respect as soon as possible.

Meanwhile, when you come to Washington please contact my office ([redacted]), and if I am here at that time I shall be very pleased to see you. If I should not be here we will arrange for you to talk to our personnel director and probably with other Agency officials in connection with the possibility of your employment.

STAT

Dear [Redacted]

I was very pleased to learn from your letter of 14 August that things are going well for you and that you are pleased with your present location.

I am enclosing forms for application for employment and for a personal history statement which we require of all applicants before considering them for this Agency. Please have [Redacted] complete and return two copies of each to me. We will then see what we have in the way of a vacancy which might be suitable for her and let her know what the prospects are as soon as we can. You may be sure we will give her every possible consideration.

It was very pleasant to have news of you, and to know things are going well with all of you.

My very best wishes to you and [Redacted] as always.
